WINE FLIGHTS

SPARKLING 16

Not all that glitters has to be gold – in the sparkling flight try a Prosecco from Italy and two sparklers from France one from the mountainous Savoie region and a Brut Rosé from Champagne.

Sommariva Prosecco, Veneto, Italy NV

Varichon & Clerc 'Privilège' Blanc de Blancs, Savoie, France NV

Roger Pouillon Brut Rosé, Champagne, France NV

FLORAL & EXOTIC 12

Begin in Argentina for the definition of floral and exotic with a Torrontés then travel to South Africa for an exotically thirst-quenching Chenin Blanc and then end with an off-dry Gewürztraminer full of floral lychee fruit and spice from Israel.

Elsa Bianchi Torrontés, Mendoza, Argentina 2007

MAN Vintners Chenin Blanc, South Africa 2007

Yarden Gewürztraminer, Golan Heights, Israel 2006

PRETTY IN PINK 13

The world looks better thru rose-colored glasses. Especially in the summertime. With colors that range from bright red to salmon pink, and that fruity, dry flavor, Rosé might be the best hot weather beverage. Check out three of our favorites.

Melipal Rosé of Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina 2007

Domaine de Reuilly Pinot Gris Rosé, Loire, France 2007

Domaine de Fontaine Rosé 'Gris de Gris', Corbières, France 2007

B IS FOR BLEND 14

Blends can sometimes be more complex than a stand alone wine. A Grenache-based blend from Spain, a GSM from California and a Tempranillo-based blend serve witness.

Xavier Clua 'El Sola d'en Pol' Garnatxa/Cabernet/Syrah, Terra Alta, Spain 2006

Edmunds St. John 'Rocks & Gravel', California 2005

Vale da Torre 'Bin 717' Aragonês/Trincadeira, Portugal 2006

CALIFORNIA GOLD 16

Ripened under the California Sun our State's wine carries that prized ripeness well. From old-vine Carignane to a Petite big on flavor to a sprightly tannic young-vine Cabernet Sauvignon taste a snap shot of California's wine industry.

Jessie's Grove 'Ancient Vine' Carignane, Lodi 2005
